Church family,

Praise the Lord from whom all blessings flow! These are words from the Doxology that express our hearts of thankfulness and praise. And my heart is full of both. I want to say thank you to the Robertsville church family for all the love and grace you showered on me, Jill, and our boys as we celebrated ten years of walking with and serving the Lord together. Mary Liz recalled the words of 1 Thessalonians 5:12-13 that exhort the church to "make sure that you show your deep appreciation for those who cherish you and diligently work as ministers among you. For they are your leaders who care for you, teach you, and stand before the Lord on your behalf. They value you with great love. Because of their service to you, let peace reign among yourselves." I want to say that you are faithful to these words and have lived them out toward the Scotts. You are a loving and supportive church family, and you have never failed in your consistency and partnership in the Gospel. Thank you for loving us and ministering to us last Sunday. You'll never know what it meant to receive gifts and cards that conveyed so many heartfelt words of love and encouragement. Jill and I shed tears of joy as we read each card together. We know what it means to be loved by our church. And we are changed by the love of Jesus you have shown us. I look forward to our future days. May they be even greater than the former. May the Lord do a new thing in our midst! May He display His power in new ways! May we be filled with a new sense of awe and wonder as the Spirit moves among us and revives us again!

See you Sunday,
Brian
