ANNIE
ARMSTRONG
EASTER OFFERING

I want to share with you a volunteer opportunity. Heidi Brenner with The Tutoring Initiative is looking for some who might be able to serve one hour a week to help students with reading skills. The location will be Blossom Childcare Center adjacent to RBC on Royce Circle. This is an excellent opportunity to provide help and support to young people and our community. If you are interested you can let me know and I'll put you in touch with Heidi.

I share with you a passage that has been speaking to me recently. It comes from Lamentations, an OT prophetic book filled with words describing the pain of loss and death brought about by exile. But sandwiched in between are words of life and hope. May these ancient words come alive in you. Lamentations 3:22-26: "Through the Lord's mercies we are not consumed, because His compassions fail not. They are new every morning; great is Your faithfulness. "The Lord is my portion," says my soul, "Therefore I hope in Him!" The Lord is good to those who wait for Him, to the soul who seeks Him. It is good that one should hope and wait quietly for the salvation of the Lord." Amen.

See You Sunday,

Brian

BEREAVEMENT MINISTRY TEAM

Many thanks go to the first team, Aileen Mantooh, Betty Duncan, and Delma Winkels, for their leadership and compassion in forming the first RBC Bereavement Ministry Team four years ago. Their successors, Marilyn Kerley, Anne Jenkins, and Gail Sweeden, are following in some giant footsteps. We are asking each of you to please sign up, on a rotating basis, to bring an item for a funeral meal or to work in serving/cleanup of the meal itself sometime in the future. The team will not ask you to do both (making something and work) for the same event. By preparing a meal, we are serving our church family during a time of sorrow. Most of us will be in the same position of receiving this expression of Christian love at some point, so please help us. The sheets are on the information desk in the upper foyer, or contact Gail, Marilyn, or Anne.

SYMPATHY

Pastor Scott and the church family wish to express its Christian sympathy to Lena Parker in the death of her brother, Jerry Hummel; to John Berry in the death of his wife, Jean Berry; to John and Katy Berdolt in death of her son, Mike Howell.

DEACON NOMINATION BALLOTS

Deacon Nomination Ballots are due February 19, 2017. Please place your ballot in marked box in church office.

BOTTLES FOR BABIES

Bottles for Babies are due February 26, 2017. Please place your bottle on the desk in the church office.

FUSION YOUTH MINISTRY

Thank you to all those that contributed to the Valentine Love Packages for the TBCH in Oakdale. The girls were so appreciative of the Valentine gifts!

The Easter Egg Helicopter Drop is really taking shape now. Would anyone in the church have a golf cart that could be used to help guests get from the parking lot to the field? We also need some pop up canopies like those used for tailgating. Please let me know if you can help with these needs.

Love in Christ,
Jack Abbott
