Church family,

I'm so eager to see God at work in our midst this new year! It means so much to call you my church family, to know that each week our fellowship is strong, and to experience the grace and freedom of Jesus in our lives. What would it be like if we experienced the fulness of the Lord and His Spirit the way the early church did? How might our worship, prayers, and interactions be impacted? What energy would infuse our outreach into the world?

Penetrating questions are a good way to center our sights as we walk with Jesus into a new year. Consider these...

—What will God be doing this year?

—What scripture, word, or phrase might guide you as a theme for this year?

—What fruit of the Spirit might the Lord want to abound in your life and home?

—What commitment in your relationship to Jesus, family, church, vocation, or schooling will Jesus strengthen you to renew?

Just some questions to serve as food for prayerful thought and reflection. If you have one to add to the list, pass it along to me.

See you Sunday,
Brian

FUSION YOUTH MINISTRY

We had a great Christmas Party with the children from the TBCH foster home. Thank you to all that bought the gifts from the Angel Tree! I especially want to thank Betty Morgan for the quilts she made for each of the children. I would also like to thank the ministry team of Pauline's Missions Ministry for making the clothes closet available to our guests. This event and the Thanksgiving meal would not be possible without the help of Betty McMahan. Thank you very much Betty!

Please sign up in the main foyer if you plan to enter this year's Chili Cook-Off on January 27. The donations given that day will go to help send students to summer camp.

Love in Christ,
Jack Abbott
